Waring Urges County Aid Airport

Lends Support To Proposal For Expansion

Support of an improved airport at Mount Pocono was urged to commissioners yesterday by Fred Waring, head of one of the county's major enterprises.

A number of groups in the area have been seeking approval by county commissioners of the program to modernize and expand Mount Pocono Airport to the point where it could handle commercial passenger and freight traffic.

Waring had not previously expressed himself in favor of the expansion—at least publicly.

Yesterday, in a letter to commissioners Amzi F. Altomose, W. Adolph Blake and Granville Shiffer, he went on record as endorsing the program.

"One point, certainly, is the location of the United States Signal Corps Depot at Tobyhanna . . . just four miles from the airport," he said, in describing the points to be considered in favor of the expansion of facilities.

"Another example . . . eight individuals flew their own planes to my resort for a golf tournament, and were forced to use the Allenstown Airport which is 45 miles away.

"I'm sure we miss a great deal of trade because of flying inconvenience. Also, many dignitaries and guest speakers attend conventions at Shawnee Inn, and they find it difficult to meet deadlines.

In a post script, Waring added, "Congressman Francis Walter has been doing everything in his power to obtain Federal aid, and it is very possible that he'll get it. Let's start the ball rolling and appropriate some money in the budget for this very worthwhile enterprise."

Commissioners did not comment on the letter.

McCarthy Gets Marine Medals

Washington (AP)—The Marine Corps yesterday presented six medals to Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) for gallant and meritorious service as a Marine air combat intelligence officer in the Pacific in World War II.

The presentation was made in the senator's office by Col. John R. Lanigan, commanding officer of the Fifth Reserve Marine District. McCarthy was given the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and four stars in lieu of additional air medals.

He told Lanigan that "I have never received and never expect to receive anything I will value more highly."

Following traditional form, the citations began, "The President of the United States takes pleasure in presenting the Air Medal," etc.

They were signed for President Truman by Secretary of the Navy Dan A. Kimball.

Truman frequently has been sharply at odds with McCarthy over the Wisconsin senator's charges of Communism in government. He has called McCarthy a "character assassin."

Hooley Given Jail Sentence

Boston (AP)—Another reluctant witness—the fourth—got a jail term yesterday for refusing to testify before the federal grand jury investigating the $1,219,000 cash robbery of Brink's Express Company three years ago.

The latest to be sentenced is Paul Hooley, 39. He got nine months. One of the other three is Hooley's wife, Mary, 37, a sister of Joseph J. (Specs) O'Keefe, the 44-year-old Boston gunman tabbed by the FBI as a participant in the record cash holdup.

The Hooleys are the parents of three small children. Mrs. Hooley has appealed her sentence of one year.

Assemblyman-Elect Peilly To Introduce Bill In State Legislature To Legalize Gambling

Bangor—Elaborating on his first exclusive statement dealing with alleged gambling machine dictatorship in his home county, Clair Peilly, resident here and assemblyman-elect said yesterday he intends to introduce and promote legislation legalizing gambling.

Sunday night Mr. Peilly told The Daily Record that Northampton County now has "one-man rule operating console machines" in clubs and hotels.

Yesterday he explained that it is his belief that by legalizing gambling, "one-man dictatorship" of gambling will be eliminated wherever it exists.

Peilly's exclusive statement to

The Daily Record aroused a widespread stir in this community and in court house circles in Easton yesterday.

The assemblyman-elect said his decision to move for legalized gambling stems back to the time he was a vice president of the Bangor Republican Club.

At that time, Peilly charged, he was told that if he put gambling machines in the club other than those of the "one-man dictatorship," the club "would suffer the consequences."

He reiterated last night that there are some 200 console machines in Northampton County. Peilly said he also belongs to some 50 clubs in the county.

However, he expressed belief that the console machines "will all be pulled out by tomorrow."

Meanwhile, Assistant District Attorney Alfred Nittle of Northampton County, commenting on Peilly's statement concerning legalizing gambling said:

"You don't eliminate sin by becoming a sinner."

Nittle also said it is Peilly's duty, if he is aware of console gambling machines, to inform law enforcement officers. He suggested Peilly notify Chief of Police Glenwood Lewis, of Bangor, of any such machines in that community.

Taft-Hartley Law Injunction Clause Upheld By U. S. Judge

Buffalo, N. Y. (AP)—The injunction provision of the controversial Taft-Hartley Act met its first head-on court test yesterday and a federal judge declared the clause constitutional.

District Judge John Knight granted the government an 80-day injunction restraining the CIO United Steelworkers from continuing a strike at the American Locomotive Company plant at Dunkirk.

"The strike, in effect, is a strike against the government," Knight said. He held that his court had jurisdiction for that reason.

"It seems unthinkable that a strike in a plant producing for the government items now vitally necessary to the defense of this country and the security of its people should be permitted to continue," Knight said.

The approximately 1,500 workers at Dunkirk make nickel-plated pipe that the Atomic Energy Commission says is vital to its program.

Knight said that "delay in the construction of these materials, caused by the Dunkirk strike, will mean a loss in the production of atomic weapons."

He added: "While technically not at war, existing conditions in Korea are tantamount to war."

Joseph P. Molony, USW state director, said the union would seek a Supreme Court review of the decision.

The deportation order is based on a 1947 conviction of draft dodging. McGranery said he is giving Rubinstein until 4 p.m. today to surrender himself to the immigration service offices in New York City.

Having exhausted his appeals within the immigration service and Justice Department, Rubinstein still could take his case into the courts again if he chooses.

Fireworks Set Off In Auto; One Youth Dies

Memphis, Dec. 29 (AP)—A carelessly flipped match brought a teen-aged crowd's joyride in a stolen car to a deadly end yesterday.

The match landed in a box of fireworks—which police also classified as stolen. The continuous roar of explosions and spewing flames from Roman candles and skyrocketed made the car's interior a blazing inferno.

Walter Allen Lewis, 17, died of his burns. Two other boys, one 15 the other 14, were in hospitals with severe injuries. Three escaped with minor hurts.

Capt. W. E. Crawford, West Tennessee highway patrol chief, said the six youths were riding around tossing lighted fireworks out the car windows when the accident happened.

Urging Consultation. London, (AP)—Informed sources said yesterday Prime Minister Churchill will urge President-elect Eisenhower to consult fully with Britain before the United States embarks upon any new Far Eastern moves.

Meany said the mechanics of such a merger would be so complex that negotiations are sure to be "long winded."

Union Heads To Discuss Merger

New York (AP)—AFL President Meany George said yesterday that he has arranged to meet CIO President Walter Reuther in Washington after the holidays to discuss proposals to merge the two unions.

10 Americans Perish When PBM Crashes

Tokyo (AP)—A big flying boat on night patrol crashed Friday night in the Sea of Japan and only four of the 14 aboard were rescued, the U. S. Navy announced yesterday.

The other 10 members of the crew were listed as dead.

The big four-engine craft, a Navy PBM, hit the sea 50 miles off the east coast of Korea from Kosong, the Navy said.

The U. S. destroyer Renshaw, speeding to the scene, snatched four crewmen from the icy waters two hours after the plane went down.

The four were brought to the U. S. Naval base at Yokosuka near Tokyo. Only two required hospital treatment. The other two were ready to return to duty.

GOP Senators, Ike To Confer

New York (AP)—The fate of wage and price controls may hinge on talks today between President-elect Eisenhower and Republican Senate leaders.

Controls are due to expire April 30. Eisenhower can seek to have them extended or to let them die. He hasn't tipped his hand yet, although he said in his campaign he favors junking them as soon as feasible.

An informed source said the general has asked a group of advisers to study the whole matter and give him the benefit of their views. This source, declining use of his name, added the group still is up in the air without even a preliminary recommendation.

Eisenhower took over his legislative program with GOP House leaders last Dec. 18. He does the same thing at today's luncheon with Republican Senate leaders, including Sen. Robert A. Taft.

90-Year-Old Man To Witness 12th Inauguration

Washington (AP)—Addison T. Smith, 90, who hasn't missed the inauguration of a President since 1889, will watch the induction of Dwight D. Eisenhower. But he'll still be junior to another inauguration fan in at least one respect.

J. Henry Geer, 92, of Beaver County, Pa., marched in the inauguration parade of James A. Garfield in 1881, and plans to be on hand for this one.

Smith, a former Republican House member from Idaho, now lives in Washington, and says he knows of no other living person who has seen 11 presidents take their oaths. He says he met them all, too, except President Truman.

He hopes to get an introduction to the outgoing President before inauguration day.

Declaring that any cutback in U. S. plane production could be "catastrophic," Vandenberg said:

"Even today the Russians are equaling our output, or perhaps bettering it."

Vandenberg expressed his views in an article written for Planes, official publication of the Aircraft Industries Association.

The U. S. Air Force chief said that with the atomic bomb now in the possession of the Soviet Union, "we are entering a period of increased tension and, in some parts of the world, of acute crisis."

Denies Charge

Washington (AP)—Sen. Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) denied yesterday he conspired to destroy the business of the Las Vegas Sun, a newspaper which criticized him editorially.

First Atom Spy Freed By Britain

Waterfield, England (AP)—Dr. Alan Nunn May, the first atom spy caught by the West, stepped out of prison a free man yesterday.

The brilliant young British scientist had served his time—six years and eight months of a 10-year sentence, with time off for good behavior. Under British law he had paid his debt to society.

But so far as was publicly known May was still a Communist and unrepentant for having given Russia vital samples of uranium used in making the first U. S. atomic bomb.

He received $700 and two bottles of whiskey. At his trial he had defended his action with the statement he believed Russia should share in atomic knowledge "for the safety of mankind."

When prison guards slammed shut on him in 1946 Russia had yet to explode her first atomic charge. When they opened about 1:30 yesterday morning, it was into a free world tense with the fear of what Russia would do with the secrets he helped her get.

A U. S. joint congressional committee reported last year that May and three other atom spies—Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, awaiting execution at Sing Sing in New York, and Britain's Dr. Klaus Fuchs, serving a 14-year sentence—had advanced the Soviet atomic energy program by at least 18 months.

Thirty newsmen, waiting at the grey prison's main gate, did not get a chance to ask May his reactions yesterday. He was spirited out a side door by a prison official and given a new ration book and a third class train ticket to an unknown destination.

Reporters gathered outside the home of his brother, Ralph, 20 miles outside London, convinced the scientist was there. The curtains of the house were tightly drawn and those inside refused to answer the door.

But after several hours, Ralph denied his brother had moved in. "I have invited my brother to stay with me," he said. "So far, however, I have had no communication from him to indicate whether or not he will stay with me, and at the moment I have no knowledge of his whereabouts."

Fulton Proposes Right To Veto Some Money Bills

Pittsburgh (AP)—Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa.) said yesterday he will propose a Constitutional Amendment to allow the President to veto individual items in appropriations bills.

Fulton said he will introduce the measure Jan. 3. He said it is now impossible for the President to cut an item from an appropriations bill without vetoing the entire measure.

Fulton explained:

"If a large appropriation bill is in the works, a lot of items are added to it by legislators who know the President can't kill them without killing the entire bill."

The Congressmen said his proposal would give the President the power to lower and control taxes. A Constitutional Amendment must be passed by legislatures of 36 states.

Troops Withdraw

Seoul (AP)—A beefed-up Chinese company numbering possibly 225 troops attacked Allied outposts on the Western Front last night and forced U. N. soldiers to withdraw after one hour of sharp skirmishing.

The Allied troops later reoccupied the positions without opposition, an Eighth Army staff officer said.

Russia Has Built Five Times As Many Planes As U. S. In Last Five Years, Says Air Chief

Washington (AP)—Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, said yesterday Soviet Russia has produced five times as many planes as the United States during the last five years.

Declaring that any cutback in U. S. plane production could be "catastrophic," Vandenberg said:

"Even today the Russians are equaling our output, or perhaps bettering it."

Vandenberg expressed his views in an article written for Planes, official publication of the Aircraft Industries Association.

The U. S. Air Force chief said that with the atomic bomb now in the possession of the Soviet Union, "we are entering a period of increased tension and, in some parts of the world, of acute crisis."

Senators Told Spy Group Operated Near Atom Base By Czech Group In U. N.

Washington, (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) said yesterday he will urge further Senate investigation of sworn charges that a spy group, based near the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic weapons installation, was operated "by the Czechoslovakian government through the United Nations staff."

The accusation was made by Harvey Matusow of Dayton, Ohio, a self-styled former Communist and one-time informer for the FBI.

Matusow told the story under oath at a public hearing before the Senate internal security subcommittee at Salt Lake City, Utah, last Oct. 8.

He said a man named George Stary, whom he described as "the delegate at that time to the Human Rights Conference of the U. N.," had urged him in the fall of 1950 to ferret out "any atomic secrets that could be obtained in and around Sandia base in Albuquerque and Los Alamos."

A transcript of the hearings did not say specifically what country Stary represented.

Matusow testified that at the time he was regularly quartered at the San Cristobal Valley Ranch, near Taos, N. M., about 80 miles northeast of Los Alamos, and that the place "catered primarily to members of the Communist party."

Among others there, he said, was a Czechoslovakian woman secretary to "one of the delegates to the United Nations. She was a Czech Communist here, under the auspices of the U. N." He said he had forgotten her name.

Since 1946, Cutler has been president and director of the Old Colony Trust Co. in Boston.

Cutler plans to resign those posts and all his other business connections.

Three Bodies Taken From Ruins

Chicago, (AP)—Three bodies were taken from a furniture store and warehouse which was shattered and charred by a spectacular blast and fire yesterday.

Fire Marshal Michael J. Corrigan said six persons were believed to have been trapped in the four-story building of the General Furniture Company.

Moves Aimed At Filibusters

Washington (AP)—Moves were afoot on Capitol Hill yesterday to change the rules in both House and Senate to prevent legislative bills from getting stalled behind a wall of technicalities.

Four and possibly more senators will confer today on plans for an attack against the Senate rule which permits a minority to filibuster and literally talk a bill to death.

And Rep. Eberhart (D-Pa.) announced he will ask the House to strip its rules committee of power to tie up indefinitely bills approved by other House committees.

Eberhart said he will seek a rules change when the new House convenes Saturday.

More than half the Air Force's planes, he said, are obsolete.

Vandenberg said that during the current buildup, the aircraft industry has delivered some 15,000 planes of all types to the armed services. He said this was "a commendable record, attained under trying semi-mobilization conditions which frequently hampered production."

But he cautioned that although U. S. productive capacity is vast, it would be impossible to cut production now, and then, in some future crisis, expect the present production rate to be restored overnight.

Both men appeared before a House judiciary subcommittee which is setting out to determine whether any federal departments interfered with the work of the grand jury.

Cahill also testified that four or five Americans employed by the U. N. and suspected of Communist leanings had been recommended to the international body by a member of Congress.

He said the grand jury testified "there was a conspiracy that had been putting people in important places in the State Department for over 20 years."

Cahill declined to identify the member of Congress, saying he probably was "an unwitting tool in the conspiracy."

Interference By McGranery, Acheson Cited

Washington (AP)—The foreman of a New York federal grand jury testified yesterday he was informed that Secretary of State Acheson did not want the jury to submit a report that disloyal Americans had infiltrated the United Nations.

Joseph P. Kelly also told a group of House investigators that he heard Atty. Gen. McGranery tried to have the report delayed at the last minute. The report was submitted to a federal judge on Dec. 2.

Three other members of the grand jury joined Kelly in accusing the State and Justice Departments of hampering their search for any Americans with Communist backgrounds on the U. N. staff.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, said the department had flatly denied that it attempted to interfere with the inquiry when the accusation was first made a couple of weeks ago.

G. Frederick Mullen, Justice Department press officer, said McGranery would have no comment on Kelly's testimony. The charges will be answered, he added, when Justice Department officials appear before the House committee. Mullen said McGranery had not been summoned so far.

Kelly testified he was told about the attitude of the two Cabinet members by Roy M. Cohn, a special assistant U. S. Attorney who was assigned to the grand jury but is now with the Justice Department.

The witness related that Cohn joined Myles Lane, U. S. attorney for the Southern District of New York, in a Washington conference with Acheson and McGranery about the Dec. 2 report, officially called a presentation.

"From what Cohn told me," Kelly said, "Acheson didn't want the presentation handed down. Cohn and Lane had a pretty stormy session in Washington."

It was reliably reported here yesterday that Cohn is slated for a key job with the Senate Permanent Investigations Committee in the new Congress.

Kelly went on to say that Cohn also told him on the day the presentation was filed the attorney general urged Cohn by telephone to get the grand jury to hold up until its report could be sent to the Justice Department for examination by McGranery.

"I believe most of our trouble came from the State Department," Kelly testified. "I think the State Department was responsible for all these people being employed by the U. N." He was apparently referring to U. S. citizens whose loyalty has been challenged by the grand jury.

Another juror, Max M. Zimmerman, said he threatened Lane with publicity if the attorney general succeeded in blocking the report.

"I told him we were going to file the presentation whether the attorney general liked it or not," Zimmerman said.

"I told him: 'If there is a miscarriage of justice in this case, we are going to call in the press and give it the full story, and you can tell that to the attorney general with my compliments.'"

Lane has denied that any attempt was made to impede the grand jury. He explained the Justice Department wanted to examine the presentation to make sure it was in order legally.

Charles J. Harsanyi, assistant foreman of the jury, testified Lane "left a definite impression he wanted to frighten us" into not making the report.

Joseph A. Cahill, another juror, said that "if we had a Justice Department that was willing to cooperate we would have dug up a lot of dirt and filth in the United Nations—and by dirt and filth I mean subversive."

Both men appeared before a House judiciary subcommittee which is setting out to determine whether any federal departments interfered with the work of the grand jury.

Cahill also testified that four or five Americans employed by the U. N. and suspected of Communist leanings had been recommended to the international body by a member of Congress.

He said the grand jury testified "there was a conspiracy that had been putting people in important places in the State Department for over 20 years."

Cahill declined to identify the member of Congress, saying he probably was "an unwitting tool in the conspiracy."

Death Claims Ross Topley, Pocono Lake

T. Ross Topley, 67, Pocono Lake, died at 10 p. m. Sunday at the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg.

He had been a patient there 10 days, and had been in failing health for some time.

He was born in Germantown, Pa., was assistant to the president of the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund. He had been associated with the fund for 15 years. He moved to Pocono Lake from Philadelphia a year ago.

He is a member and elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia; member of Cassia Lodge No. 273, F and AM, of Ardmore, Pa.

Burial will be at Pocono Lake Cemetery.

PSEA Opens Convention

Harrisburg (AP)—Pennsylvania's school teachers were urged last night not to allow "an iron curtain" to descend around their classrooms and schools.

The warning came from Mrs. Sarah C. Caldwell, Akron, O., president of the National Education Association, in an address before the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

"Don't be frightened by the threats of those who would seek to lower this iron curtain," she said. "Teachers of the free world must continue to speak for themselves."

The prominent educator addressed the opening general session of the PSEA's 100th annual three-day convention. More than 2,500 teachers and educational leaders are participating in the various discussion groups.

Mrs. Caldwell told the teachers they must help "erect spiritual, moral and intellectual bulwarks against ideologies that are designed to erode and eventually destroy the very foundations of free government and democracy."

Members of the fire company will meet at the fire house at 7 p. m., in uniform, and will attend the viewing in a group.

Living Cell Study Linked With Viruses

By Alton L. Blakeslee

AP Science Reporter

St. Louis (AP)—The secret of how life makes new life is brought nearer solution by discoveries announced yesterday.

The findings also partly answer another great puzzle—how viruses manage to force living cells to make new viruses that cause polio, flu and other diseases.

The discoveries were reported yesterday to the American Association for the Advancement of Science by Dr. Barry Commoner, associate professor of plant physiology at Washington University here.

By one approach, he tackled both mysteries.

Living cells reproduce themselves, turning out materials to make cells exactly like the parents.

A virus does about the same thing. To reproduce itself, it must enter a living cell.

There, it not only robs the cells of nutrients the cell needs, but does far more. It takes over the cell's own machinery, forcing the cell into slave labor to make hundreds of new viruses.

The cell follows elaborate, intricate chemical steps to make a new cell. The virus manages to switch these steps, to turn out viruses.

Dr. Commoner and associates reported finding some of these chemical steps and the changes

Lord Mountbatten Termed Britain's 'Grey Eminence'

Paris, (AP)—The illustrated weekly Noir et Blanc (black and white) told its readers yesterday Adm. Lord Mountbatten is the "grey eminence" of the British court. The term was applied to Cardinal Richelieu's secretary in France and has come to mean a power behind the throne.

The magazine said Mountbatten has "predominant influence" over his nephew, the Duke of Edinburgh, who in turn influences Queen Elizabeth II, his wife. It said British Conservatives were uneasy because "the whom some call King Louis (Mountbatten) has communicated to Philip of Edinburgh all his revolutionary ideas concerning establishment of a kind of popular monarchy."

Learning these steps could open the way to preventing some virus diseases, by interrupting these steps, and since the mechanism of reproduction is so similar, the findings also could explain more about how living, healthy cells reproduce themselves.

Rancher's Death In Plane Plunge Ruled Accidental

Sweetwater, Tex., (AP)—The death of a rich young rancher who told pleading friends he wouldn't land because of "what I did" and then plunged to earth in his light plane was listed officially yesterday as an accident.

Justice of the Peace M. C. Manroe made the ruling in the death of Ollie William Cox, 23.

The youth's father, Ollie Cox, Ft. Stockton rancher, said: "The boy didn't intend to kill himself. He was just kidding his friends and lost control of the plane."

Manroe said: "How do we know that the man didn't change his mind 10 seconds before he hit the ground? . . . How do we know he didn't black out?"

While friends in the airport control tower at Abilene pleaded with him for three hours Sunday, Cox picked out a gravel pit on a ranch near here as a target. "I'll meet you at the gravel pit," he said.

From 6,800 feet his plane flashed down and missed the gravel pit. He died when the craft slammed against a creek bank and bounced 200 yards onto level, mesquite-studded ground.

Cox owned the 2,560-acre Double Herat Hereford ranch, 10 miles south of here. He and his wife had a 3-year-old daughter, Karen Kay. Mrs. Cox is expecting another baby in about a month. She and his mother were in seclusion yesterday.

Cox never explained what he meant by "what I did" in his radio conversation. If the friends who begged him to land knew, they did not say.

They kidded and coaxed and begged him to land.

At times Cox broke into sobs. Once he said, "If I come down I'll lose my wife — lose all my friends—I'll lose everything."

He will be buried Wednesday on his ranch.

Civil Aeronautics Authority men in the Abilene tower made a tape recording of the radio conversation.

Manroe said he did not hear the recording or see a transcript of it in determining the inquest verdict. "That's hearsay evidence," he said.

Granger Admits He Tints Hair

London, (AP)—Movie actor Stewart Granger disclosed yesterday that he tints his graying hair to keep the hearts of his bobby sox fans thumping.

"It has to be done," Granger told British newsmen, "otherwise I might lose my teen-age fans, to whom gray hair means an old man."

He said he hopes to bring his wife, actress Jean Simmons, to England next Easter. She is now making pictures in Hollywood. Granger is here for a brief visit with friends.

Commissioners Refer Duplicating Machine Purchase To Court

Ruling Sought In Regard To Materials Cost

A court opinion will be sought soon over use of a photo-duplicating machine in the recorder's office.

The machine, which has been on trial use in the Court House for less than two months, was the subject of a conference in the commissioners' office yesterday.

Present in addition to commissioners and county solicitor James Kitson, were two members of a Monroe County Bar Association committee appointed to investigate the machine, and Robert Knapp, representing the manufacturer, Hall and McChesney, Syracuse, N. Y.

The two local attorneys, Harold C. Edwards and Leo Achtermann, told commissioners the bar association had officially endorsed the machine and the work it produced.

After checking work produced by photographic methods—as opposed to the old-fashioned manual typewritten copying—the committee said, "We think it has been very satisfactory."

Referring to the fact that materials for the machine are more expensive than materials for the manual method, Edwards said, "We on the committee felt that the county would spend maybe five or six hundred dollars to get $1,500.

"And then, of course, we feel that not only have we the recording—which photographs the signatures as well as the deed—but also a permanent film, so that if the books should be destroyed by fire the people's titles could be reproduced."

Absent from the conference was a third member of the committee, Arlington W. Williams, who had to attend another meeting.

Recorder Floyd Butz has been arguing for the machine for more than a year. His claim is that it will reduce clerical costs to the point where the county will realize a profit on the business of the recorder's office for the first time. The reduction in labor costs would also increase Butz' profit.

The company man mentioned that commissioners of Lehigh County are purchasing one of the Hall-McChesney machines for use in their recorder's office. However, the recorder in Lehigh County is on a straight salary basis. The recorder in Monroe is on a fee basis.

The way the fee basis works is that the county pays for all the materials used in Butz' office. Butz pays for all the labor.

Butz retains everything collected in fees up to the first $4,000. Anything over and above that is split 50-50 with the county.

Butz said the cost of materials with the new system would be nearly double—but this would be far outweighed by the reduction in labor cost, which is the biggest item in the expense side of the ledger.

The recorder said he's waiting until he's finished adding up the year's business before he has an exact picture of the amount of money he thinks the county will make under the proposed system.

Commissioners did not officially move to buy the machine.

"We're in favor of the machine," one said. "But the question of certain expenses for materials hasn't been ironed out to our satisfaction."

He indicated that commissioners none-the-less would be very likely to O.K. the purchase if the court approves.

No specific time was mentioned when the opinion would be sought of President Judge Fred W. Davis.

740 Holiday Deaths Noted

By The Associated Press

The heavy loss of life in accidents during the long Christmas weekend may have one good result—a lower death toll during the New Year holiday period.

The final tabulation Monday of accidental deaths during the four-day Christmas period showed a total of 740. This included 552 traffic deaths, 92 fire deaths and 196 deaths from various other accidental causes.

These deaths occurred during the 102 hours between 6 p. m. Wednesday and midnight Sunday.

Another 102-hour stretch of holiday fun and festivity begins Wednesday night—New Year's Eve.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, expressed the hope that the long Christmas death list will inspire caution during the New Year holiday. He said:

"The New Year traffic toll can be held to half of the Christmas toll if each of us will drive as if our life depended on it—and, believe me, it does."

36 New Members Enrolled In Motor Roll In December

The Christmas campaign of the Pocono Mountains Motor Club was described as a success at the meeting of the Board of Governors last night. There were 36 new members enrolled.

The governors voted to continue the direct mail campaign in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Motor Federation for the coming year. The campaign consists of quarterly mailing of AAA information attractively illustrated to 1,000 new motor owners in the county to acquaint them of the AAA benefits.

Seventy-one emergency road calls were answered during the past month—39 local and 32 foreign—at a total cost of $303.50. The local club is reimbursed for foreign calls.

Cynthia Watt, secretary-manager of the club reported being kept very busy working out road maps and furnishing information for local members who have been going to Florida points particularly during the past month.

Twenty-seven new members were elected at last night's meeting as follows:

Stroudsburg: Walter S. Frederick, Ernest E. Garland, Oliver J. Nuss, Herbert Houser, Clarence W. Phillips, Dr. David B. Shulman, Hickory Valley Farm, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Shook, Frederick Rothenberg and Joseph Martocci.

East Stroudsburg: Harold R. Kramer, James W. McKeand Jr., Alice L. Stewart and Andrew Weiss; Harry E. Miller, Analomink; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Altomese, Brodheadsville, Cresco: Mrs. Grace C. Peters, Elizabeth M. Rogers, Helen A. Staff, Alice Harrison, Tobyhanna, Janet Schulz; Saylorsburg, Lorraine Parnell and Olive Buskirk; Dingmans Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Stroud, and Mrs. M. Lorraine Linck, Batavia, N. Y.

R. LeRoy Dengler, president, presided at the meeting. Other governors present were: Russell Eshbach, John Crandall, Walter Fosso, Clair Learn, M. E. Leffler, Gerald P. O'Neill, George H. Costenbader, A. F. Everitt, and Miss Watt.

It is understood Atty. Albert H. Aston of Wilkes-Barre will be appointed special master.

County Awards Book Contract

A contract for 58 assessment books was awarded by county commissioners yesterday to the Arnold Book Bindery, Reading, for a low bid of $695.

The only other bid was by a Philadelphia firm which quoted a price of $892.50.

The contract covers 29 field assessment books and 29 office assessment books. Commissioners required delivery by March 1.

Missing Girl Found Alive

Johannesburg, South Africa (AP)—Evelyn Maria Woods, 5, who disappeared from a picnic party three days ago, was found alive but tired and hungry yesterday under a tree on a mountain ridge.

About 300 searchers, aided by aircraft, had been scouring the mountain country near Rustenberg for a trace of Evelyn, daughter of a policeman.

Council Votes Cooperation With Industry

Bangor — Council agreed "100 per cent" last night to cooperate with the Blue Ridge Textile Co. in their plan to erect a $250,000 addition to one of their Bangor plants.

The plant will be located on S. Murray St., and will adjoin Plant No. 4.

Borough Council was asked last night to vacate a section of Miller St. Council members agreed to have the borough engineer draw up plans to vacate the requested section.

The new addition will be 120 feet wide and 145 feet long. If market conditions warrant, the building will be in operation by September, 1953. It will employ an additional 40 to 60 people.

At present the company has 440 working in Bangor and about 60 at a plant in Delaware. About 75 per cent of the employees are men.

Max Winkler, president of the firm, said the new addition would "cement" the business which is recognized as among the tops in the textile fabrication trade.

The firm manufactures nylon and novelty fabrics for gloves, lingerie, dresses, evening gowns, and millinery.

The two-story modern-design addition will be used for throwing and warping.

The company's general superintendent, Clarence Brown, also attended the special council meeting. The session lasted about a half hour.

Truman Honored

Washington, (AP)—The Reserve Officers Association of the United States awarded its Distinguished Service Citation to President Truman yesterday. The President was cited for his work in fostering legislation and otherwise advancing the interests of reserve officers in all the military services.

In it the teachers said they are "alarmed . . . at the growth of anti-intellectualist conceptions of education." They said this presents a "serious danger to American intellectual life" and that some of the current educational philosophy is both "anti-intellectual and anti-democratic."

The resolution didn't say so in so many words, but Bestor told reporters yesterday the educators are primarily concerned with the hold schools of education have on teaching in grade and high schools.

"The first thing for a teacher is to know his subject," Bestor said. "Yet there are persons teaching history who are virtually untrained in the subject but do have the required training in education."

Parade A Sellout

Washington, (AP)—The inaugural parade is a virtual sellout. John F. Mossessey, chairman of the inaugural subcommittee in charge of ticket sales, said only 1,500 of 60,000 seats still were available at $4 each.

$94,538 Of Gas Tax Funds Distributed By County During Year Just Ending

The county spent $94,538.23 out of its liquid fuels tax fund this year. That's almost $3 per person.

The figures were compiled by Chief Clerk Harry Taylor yesterday as an unofficial year-end report on the status of the fuels tax fund.

The county received a total of $79,786.51 from the State as its share of the gasoline tax "kick-back."

After all payments this year, there remains a balance of $28,298.99 which will carry over into 1953. However, part of this balance is cancelled out by obligations charged against it.

The obligations include road damage agreements totaling $11,260.17 still unpaid; township aid which was authorized in 1952 but still has not been paid over, totaling $2,500; and interest on road bonds, $850 for next year. This leaves an unencumbered balance of $14,610.17 for next year.

It is the first time Monroe County has had all its obligations covered by cash.

The money paid out of the county fuel tax fund included: $66,483.02 to townships and boroughs; $4,124.59 for repair of county bridges; $1,853.07 for payment of State damage claims; $377.55 for payment of road viewers; $21,700 for retirement of road bonds and payment of interest on bonds. Total, $94,538.23.

The balance from 1951 amounted to $43,049.71. This gave commissioners a total balance and receipts for 1952 of $122,836.22.

Assemblies Arranged

Kresgeville—Assembly programs for the next semester at Polk Township High School have been announced.

Programs are listed for 2:45 p.m. with various grades conducting. Jan. 14 Mrs. Marion Mackes' tenth grade will be in charge; Jan. 21 Mrs. Dorothea Smale's grades five and six; Jan. 26, Mrs. Helen Diehl, grade nine; Feb. 4, Mrs. Annie

T-B Society Fails To Reach Quota

Failure of 2,388 persons to return their Christmas Seal envelopes to the Monroe County Tuberculosis Society leaves that organization without its quota of $8,000 to carry out a program of tuberculosis detection during 1953.

In an effort to insure completion of its 1953 chest x-ray project, planned when the 1952-53 budget was established at $8,000, the TB Society office is mailing out reminders today to all of the 2,388 persons.

A substantial response from individuals who received seals with cash for the stamps in the enclosed return envelopes is required to wipe out the deficit.

Persons who have misplaced the letters may return their cash in person to TB Society headquarters, 621 Sarah St., Stroudsburg, or use their own envelope to mail their return to that address.

In order to obtain funds budgeted, the society mailed out stamps with return envelopes to 7,293 persons. Some 4,905 persons made returns up to yesterday afternoon's mail.

One reminder appeal has already been issued. The second reminder being mailed today will be the final effort to obtain returns from the 2,388 persons, officials indicated.

Any deficiency in the $8,000 budget, they said, will have to result in a curtailment of the chest X-rays services and other anti-tuberculosis work during 1953.

Smith, grade four; Feb. 11, Clifford Stroud, grade seven; Feb. 18, Miss Elda A. Dunning, grade three; Feb. 25, Miss Marjane Everett, grade eight, and March 4, Mrs. Grace Snyder, grade one.

The Youthful Drivers

As the nation looks aghast at its annual toll of killed and wounded in countrywide highway accidents, there is one bright spot which is destined to become brighter as time passes.

That is the progress of driver training with emphasis on the youthful drivers who are taking their first turn behind the wheel of today's automobiles, for through the instrument of the driving training courses in high schools of the Stroudsburgs and the course for instructors at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College more youngsters are being given proper training.

Original promotion of driver training courses came from the Pennsylvania Motor Federation and its allied motor clubs like the Pocono Mountains Automobile Club.

It is reported by Richard B. Maxwell, secretary-manager of the PMF, that approximately 400 high schools with about 40,000 pupils are cooperating in the driver training program set up with the assistance of legislation passed in 1951. And more schools are expected to join in the plan as the program is expanded.

It is interesting to note that surveys show a vastly better safety record for those pupils who avail themselves of the driving instruction than those who have not taken part in it. The untrained youngsters are involved in five times as many accidents, according to the survey, which should be sufficient proof of the program's value.

Few Perfect Climes

The dangerous days have come again—the snow and ice that make walking and driving hazardous on the hills of Pennsylvania.

On such occasions, something like 37.4 per cent of the population must vow that it is leaving for Florida forthwith. It doesn't, of course.

If it did, it would discover that Florida also has a climatic disadvantage or two. Hurricanes do at least as much damage as snow and ice, and cause at least as much worry and inconvenience.

What about California, then, one may ask? One should remember earthquakes, which worry people and have been known to do a lot of damage. Getting enough water is also a problem.

The golden Southwest is beautiful in winter, but most of its resort areas are white hot in summer. Wisconsin and Canada and New England are fine in summer, but too cold and snowy for most of us in winter.

New Jersey has its mosquitoes, the Midwest its blizzards, the Old South its breathless summers, the Mississippi Valley its floods, and so on.

While we are sitting in stalled street cars and buses with our wet feet tucked under us, it might be a comfort to recall that the world has few perfect climes. In those few places, there's usually a fly in the climatic ointment.

If nothing else, it's the perfection itself. No interesting and stimulating changes in the weather.

The Once Over —by H. I. Phillips

Last Minute Trouble

The New Year, he confessed to already wrinkled, harassed and seemed greatly agitated.

"There'll be plenty of trouble," he said.

"I look for road blocks. My entrance won't be easy."

"What seems to be bothering you?" we asked.

"Russia," he said. "It's trying to upset the routine... Calls time and tide capitalistic inventions... Denounces me as a tool of the calendar manufacturers."

"On the level?" we asked.

"Certainly! The USSR says the whole free world conception of a new year, or even an old one, is false... Alleges that the ruling circles are responsible for the idea a year should have 255 days... Demands that the year have 200 days and 265 nights."

"But that would make a total of 465 and we would have 365 nights left over."

"I suppose the U.N. would have to adjust it some how by resolution or something," said the New Year.

"Gromyko is my special headache... He wants the 52-week year abolished as too orthodox... Claims the United States has always been at the bottom of the 52-week idea."

"How about Vishinsky?" we asked.

"Haven't you heard?" replied the New Year. "He says the New Year really began four months ago and that only the warmongers are trying to put over the idea that it starts January 1. Says he has photos of John Foster Dulles and General Eisenhower monkeying with calendars."

"Forget it," we said. "You're all set to come in as scheduled. The horns will be tooting the bells ringing."

"Moscow refuses to recognize horn tootings and threatens a purge of bell ringers," sobbed the cherub.

"Pravda has a big editorial today calling me the exploiter of gullible groups and the paid agent of those who want to be happy and joyous New Year's Eve. Izvestia says the whole world knows that January 30 really comes ahead of January 1 and that, if it were not for the British and the Americans, February 15 would be here at this very minute."

"Cheer up," we urged. "Be yourself, kid. You're as good as in."

"You haven't heard the worst," the New Year said. "Stalin has just come out with a statement branding me as a spy!"

"Nothing to it. Happy New Year!" we cried.

"Nyet! Nyet!" came through the air in strong Russian accents. "See! What did I tell you?" moaned the New Year.

We accompanied the kid to the U.N. Security Council Assembly at once and got a vote that this was really the right time for the New Year to come in. (India, Egypt, Iran, Indonesia, Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Syria, and Yemen abstaining, of course.)

The New York courts have ordered another repeated violator of parking laws to take a psychiatric test... There is good ground for assuming a man is crazy if he even takes a cat into the city these days... Dan Chaplin, Miami attorney, who not so ghosted in racing that he became quite a turfman, has sold his Kentucky Derby nominee Country Coo to a California man for $40,000... We remember Dan when he played the $2 window... Frank Stevens commutes between New York and Florida, thinking no more of it than most folks do when they use the New York subway for a trip to the Bronx... Hamlet is to be done in a series of telecasts... To TV or not TV, that is the question... A ghost to ghost telecast, obviously... Hamlet contains some excellent advice to all TV performers in the famous lines wherein the Dane instructs the players, "O, there be players that have so strutted and belov'd that I have thought some of nature's journeymen had made them, and not made them speak no more than is set down; for them, be some that will themselves laugh too."

Bette Davis rates a great hand for lacking an entirely new style in "Two's Company," and is now so much at home in the show that her performance is tops... Bette is a Lowell, Mass., gal who had a tough time getting into show business and got her first speaking part, a couple of lines, in a road company in Rochester... Ina Dodo went to the Flea Circus to see "Seven Year Itch"... Tom Ewell is doing so well in that show that everybody is trying to put the "bite" on him.

TRADESMAN'S ENTRANCE

Gruenther Stays In Europe; No More Wheat Subsidies

Robert S. Allen Reports - - - By Robert S. Allen

Washington—There has been a big change in the plans to re-shuffle top Army commanders.

The change is a direct result of the recent Paris meeting of the NATO Council that drastically pruned Western Europe's 1953 rearmament goals. This was a major setback for the U.S. and has caused considerable revision of its military plans.

One of the most important of these modifications is the announced decision to keep General Alfred Gruenther in Europe as Chief of Staff to General Ridgway, NATO commander.

This is being done at the "suggestion" of President-elect Eisenhower.

For Gruenther it means he will not be shifted to Korea to command the famed Eighth Army.

Eisenhower, during his recent Far Eastern trip, indicated his intention to replace General Van Fleet, who is due to retire for age in January, with Gruenther. There was a twofold purpose behind this proposed switch.

It would give Gruenther experience in commanding troops in combat, which he has never done. He has one of the most brilliant records in the Army, but wholly as a staff officer. Second, the Korean service would clear the way for Gruenther's elevation to Chief of Staff of the Army when General J. Lawton Collins steps out next August.

That may still be done, but for the present Gruenther will not go to Korea.

Instead, at Eisenhower's "suggestion," Gruenther will remain in Europe to help Ridgway cope with the highly disquieting situation that has arisen as a result of the NATO Council's axing of defense measures. The President-elect feels Gruenther is especially well equipped for this difficult and crucial job.

Gruenther was Eisenhower's Chief of Staff when he headed NATO. Gruenther knows that organization from top to bottom and has personal ties with all the European leaders.

Meanwhile, what will be done about General Van Fleet is up in the air. However, the following may be a significant clue as to what will happen:

Lt. General Maxwell Taylor, Deputy Chief of Staff of the Army and one of its ablest battle commanders, is leaving shortly for Korea on an "inspection trip," as his orders read.

Taylor is the Joint Chiefs' choice to replace Van Fleet. Taylor would be in Korea now preparing to assume command of Eighth Army if Eisenhower had not expressed preference for Gruenther for this post. Who will finally get it is up to the three Presidents who take office this year.

Exit Subsidy—The Eisenhower Administration will not continue the subsidy under which the government pays 60 cents a bushel on all wheat sold abroad.

That's the inside word among GOP congressional leaders.

In the past 12 months, the U.S. has exported 250,000,000 bushels of wheat under the International Wheat Agreement that specifies the 60-cent subsidy.

Senator Robert Taft, who will be Majority leader of the upper chamber; Speaker Joe Martin of the House, and other party chiefs are strongly opposed to renewing this pact. It expires June 30 and the Republicans, with their eyes fixed firmly on slashing expenditures and balancing the budget next year, are bent on either dropping or drastically revising the Agreement.

A significant indication of the new Administration's coolness toward the wheat project was disclosed by incoming-Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson during a conference with outgoing-Secretary Charles Brannan.

Brannan explained it would be up to the Agriculture Department to assist the State Department in negotiating a new Agreement, if one is desired. While the State Department conducts the parleys, the Agriculture Department actually determines the stand taken by the U.S.

"How long will I have to make that decision?" asked Benson.

"You should make it as soon as possible," replied Brannan. "I would say next month, immediately after you take office. In the meanwhile, do you want us to continue preparations for the international conference on the assumption the Agreement now in existence will be continued?"

After a long pause Benson replied warily, "That decision has not yet been made."

Battle Flashes—The top brass of the Pentagon don't know what to make of the matter. None of the four and five-star generals and admirals has yet received an invitation to the inauguration. The three armed services have been asked to supply thousands of officers and troops for the ceremony, but the brass have received no hint whether they will participate and, if so, in what capacity. All the arrangements are in the hands of a committee consisting of Washington GOP leaders.

The number of artillery shells and aerial bombs expended to date by UN forces in Korea, is estimated by ordnance experts to be the equivalent of 200 atomic bombs of the Hiroshima type. Certain authorities have estimated the destructive power of those A-bombs as equal to 20,000 tons of TNT... The big news in a forthcoming Defense Department report will be the disclosure of a large increase in the production of guided missiles. There will be no details, but the report will declare the development "has impressed even the military."

Exit Subsidy—The Eisenhower Administration will not continue the subsidy under which the government pays 60 cents a bushel on all wheat sold abroad.

That's the inside word among GOP congressional leaders.

In the past 12 months, the U.S. has exported 250,000,000 bushels of wheat under the International Wheat Agreement that specifies the 60-cent subsidy.

Senator Robert Taft, who will be Majority leader of the upper chamber; Speaker Joe Martin of the House, and other party chiefs are strongly opposed to renewing this pact. It expires June 30 and the Republicans, with their eyes fixed firmly on slashing expenditures and balancing the budget next year, are bent on either dropping or drastically revising the Agreement.

A significant indication of the new Administration's coolness toward the wheat project was disclosed by incoming-Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson during a conference with outgoing-Secretary Charles Brannan.

Brannan explained it would be up to the Agriculture Department to assist the State Department in negotiating a new Agreement, if one is desired. While the State Department conducts the parleys, the Agriculture Department actually determines the stand taken by the U.S.

"How long will I have to make that decision?" asked Benson.

"You should make it as soon as possible," replied Brannan. "I would say next month, immediately after you take office. In the meanwhile, do you want us to continue preparations for the international conference on the assumption the Agreement now in existence will be continued?"

After a long pause Benson replied warily, "That decision has not yet been made."

Jose Ferrer's Statement On Robeson Pin-Points Betrayal Of Race, Nation

These Days - - - - - By George Sokolsky

Ferrer on Robeson

Paul Robeson is an artist of merit who has become so absorbed by Soviet Russia that he no longer can be regarded as American in any other category but nominal citizenship. He is at this moment the most vehement protagonist of Soviet Russia in this country and his services have been acknowledged by Joe Stalin. Indignation against Robeson is usually expressed by patriotic Americans who have never been tempted by so-called left-wingism. Yet, no one has ever denounced Paul Robeson with such accurate pinpointing of his unforgivable sins against his native land as Jose Ferrer, actor, who has also been attacked for some of his associations.

Ferrer's language is important because he expresses the problem of the artist who insists on freedom of expression but rejects treason. This is what Ferrer said about Robeson:

"Any American who accepts an award from the Soviet Union today does a tremendous disservice, not only to his country, but to the cause of peace throughout the world. It seems to me to be very clear that up to now the Soviet Union has discredited itself as to believability of intention and honesty of purpose. I have always felt deeply about the minority groups and their problems. In the case of Paul Robeson, his action in accepting Stalin's so-called 'peace prize' seems to me to be particularly reprehensible because he is doing almost irreparable harm to his own race, and grave injury to the cause of all Negroes. He pretends to be their spokesman, and he is not. I do not believe that Paul Robeson has anything fundamentally in common with Ralph Bunche, Marian Anderson, Joe Louis, Dorothy Maynor, Jackie Robinson, and other Negroes who are winning the uphill battle for Negro rights. 'Nor does he have very much in common with the Negro soldiers in Korea, who are helping to fight the battle for freedom against Communist aggression and dictatorship. 'Anyone who is in the arts must have freedom of expression. As an artist I insist on this privilege for myself and for all others. In its attempt to control artistic and creative expression, Communism is indistinguishable from Fascism or any other form of dictatorship. This is all the more reason to deplore, the course which Paul Robeson has chosen.'"

The acknowledgment of the undeniable truth that "Communism is indistinguishable from Fascism" is emotionally difficult for many of those who in the heyday of Hitlerism were willing to accept Stalin as an alternative. Their error was that there really is no alternative to evil. It is impossible to say that Stalin is less a devil than Hitler, for both were bred by the same Hegelian sire and only differed in the method of achieving an identical end.

Even in the matter of anti-Semitism, Stalin reaches the same position as Hitler did and for the same ends, namely, that any independence of thought or action is repugnant to him. To the very few Negroes who visit his country, Stalin can well present a facade of equality because he has no Negro population in his country, but he does have Jews in sufficient number to require him to reach a conclusion about them and his conclusion is the same as Hitler's was.

Jose Ferrer, therefore, has hit the nail on the head when he establishes the truth when Robeson serves Stalin, he betrays not only the United States but the Negroes as well. It is a too usual, even though unjust, human trait to generalize from the particular. A handful of Negroes are Communists; therefore the illogical—and logic is perhaps the most difficult and unused of mental exercises—conclude that all or most, or a great many Negroes are Communists.

Robeson, in particular, stands out like a sore thumb because he is so prominent and active and such a great artist. When he sings "Ole Man River" or "Water Boy," one almost forgets he is a servant of Stalin's power. It is a pity because Robeson might have been a great service to his race and to this country. Instead, he is abhorred by most Americans and should be. Jose Ferrer has served his country well by making the issue clear-cut and understandable. It is not the Negro in Robeson that brings him opprobrium in his native land; it is his treachery to its ideals and institutions.

Cherry Lane Church Filled For Program

Cherry Lane —The Christmas program given by the members of the Sunday School of the Cherry Lane Methodist Church on Tuesday, Dec. 23 was so well attended that every available seat was filled.

The tree loaned by Jim Sebring, was hung with blue lights and candles of icicles, and placed in the alcove back of the platform which had been erected in two levels and lighted by fluorescent lights at the front by the altar railing. The archway and other spots in the building had been hung with evergreens and pedestals were erected at edges of platform to hold the lighted candles.

The choir in gowns and in procession carried the candles from the back of the church, singing "Silent Night" through the darkened auditorium.

Printed programs were distributed to those attending and at each child's turn came he stood in front of the railing and recited.

Members of the senior choir were: Mrs. Jane Sebring, Mrs. Olive Munch substituting for Miss Jane Sebring, who spent the holidays in Florida with the Art Youngkin family; sopranos, Nancy Shaffer, Janet Shaffer, Alberta Getz, Eleanor Sebring, Evelyn Kane, Roberta Bush, Mrs. Helen Shaffer, leader, and Miss Grace Brink, pianist and director.

Those in the junior choir were: Judy Horst, Billy Horst, Ronnie Horst, Junior Getz, Ida Getz, Carolyn Andress, Glenn Kane, Carol Strous, Harriet Smith, Mary Ann Smith, Gary Smith, Carmen Cavuto, musical director at the Tannersville school, loaned some of the music for this program as follows: candle light procession by gowned choir, greeting by Dick Brink, "A Friendly Place" by Laurel Blythe; "Away In A Manger" by the junior choir; "Trees at Christmas" by Billy Horst; "Christmas Love" by senior choir, Mrs. Shaffer, soloist; "Little Boys Dream" by David Sebring; "Almost Two Thousand Years Ago" by Albert and Ida Getz; "Jingle Bells" by the junior choir.

Scripture reading, by Mrs. Mary Bush, with the choir in the background; "We Three Kings of Orient Are"; prayer, Rev. Feltham, offertory "Clair de Lune"; "O Holy Night" by Senior Choir in special arrangement by Grace Brink; "Dollies", Harriet Smith, "Christmas Greeting", Carolyn Andress; "Christmas Time", Glenn Kane; "White Christmas" by Senior Choir; "Her Note" by Kathy Sebring; "Smiles to Give Away" by Carol Straus; "Night Before Christmas", senior choir.

Santa Claus helped with the exchange of gifts with distribution of candy to all children and older folks present; "We Wish You a Merry Xmas", senior choir; benediction by Rev. Feltham and duet, "Silent Night" by Mrs. Shaffer and Mrs. Munch.

The design on the program was made by Mrs. Joseph Sebring and the printing of programs done by Miss Brink.

Others who helped make this affair successful were Jack Walters, carpentry work; Jim and Joe Sebring, electrical work; Mrs. William Bush who helped with choir robes; Mrs. Ben Henry, donation of candy boxes; Mrs. Emory Shaffer who organized the Sunday school; John S. Brink, donation of candles and holders.

Music will be furnished by the Mountain Quartette, and there will be refreshments served, all without charge. The party will be chaperoned.

Geraldine Ott Affianced To John H. Jory

Bangor—Mr. and Mrs. Elton H. Ott, of Bangor RD2, announce the engagement of their daughter, Geraldine, to John H. Jory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harwell Jory, of 407 Harding Ave., Pen Argyl.

Miss Ott was graduated from Bangor High School and is employed in the office of the Portland Sand and Gravel Co. Mr. Jory, a graduate of Pen Argyl High School, attended Lafayette College and served for two years in the Army. He is now employed by Arlington Stiles, contractor.

Other aids to glamour this New Year's Eve may be found in the adorable fitted purses of metallic brocade in silver, gold, or rich patterns, which are moderately priced at $2.98, $5 and $7.50. Elegant too are the transparent cases of Lucite in various shapes and styles, many of which have clasps plated in 24K gold. These are lovely to carry, and equally lovely to see through, when a woman's accessories are dainty and colorful.

And speaking of color, I think one of the nicest things about our White Sale is the cherry red chenille bedspreads priced at $4.99. It would be worthwhile being in the red for that. It really would!

By JACK HAND
For Whitney Martin

New York (AP) — Real live people showed up at the Garden's boxing TV studio the other night to see a kid from Paterson, N. J., named Vince Martinez. They even ran buses from Jersey, like the good old days.

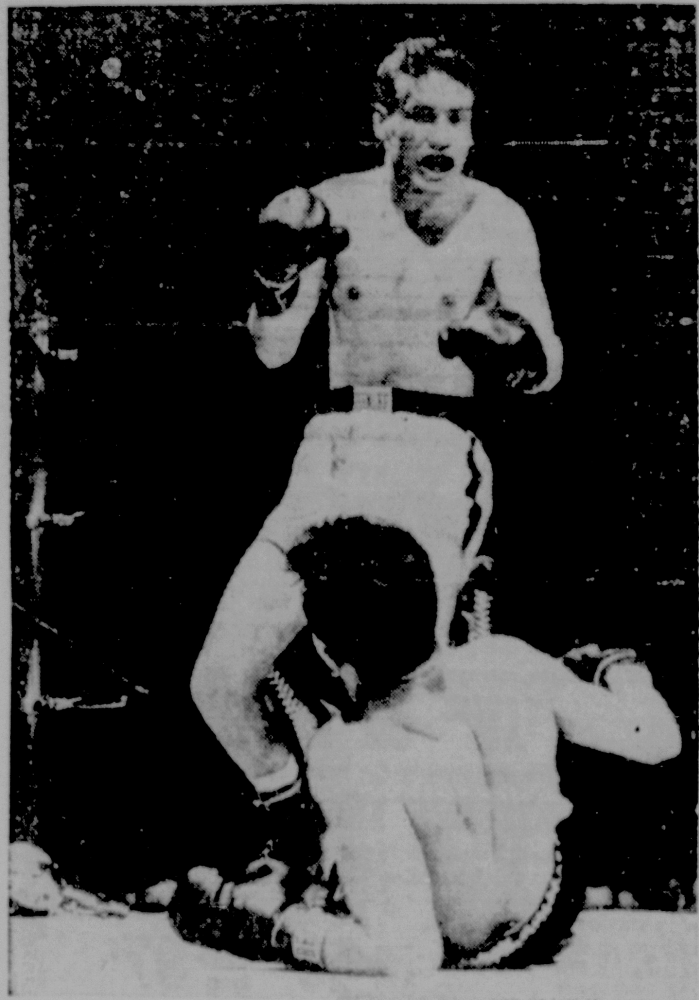

Nobody broke down any doors, fighting for tickets but the crowd of 5,954 was the Garden's largest since March when the Paddy Young-Ernie Durando series last was revived.

It must have come as a shock to some of the TV-conditioned cusa draftsman at their Bloomfield plant. Ralph Stewart, one of his bosses, was at ringside the other night with a delegation of 300 from the plant. They sold $4,000-worth of tickets at the factory.

Murray Goodman, International Boxing Club press agent, has failed Martinez the "Bobby Sox idol." He looks the part.

A pro since 1949 with 25 wins in 26 fights, 15 knockouts, young Vince still is a leading candidate for rookie of the year honors because of his sensational spurt in '52. In boxing it often is difficult to draw the line between rookie and tomers to find that a little blood sometimes is spilled at a boxing bout. Don Williams, who bowed in to retirement after taking a bad beating, dripped red from his eye and nose during most of the night. Few fighters have any following in this TV age. Perhaps they have their fans back home in front of the picture tube but they don't show up at the box office. There are exceptions, of course, like Paddy Demarco, Kid Gavilan, Sammy Guilliani, Chico Vejar and, of course, Rocky Marciano.

My typewriter still has bruises from the Marciano mob's march over the working press at Philadelphia the night he knocked out Jersey Joe Walcott.

But the local following, once the big thing in boxing, is now the exception rather than the rule. That's why Martinez, an exceptionally talented young man, is so different.

First off, young Vincent now 23 is a good looking lad with dark, wavy hair and brown eyes. Somebody said at ringside the other night he looks like Robert Mitchum and he does, too.

When he's not fighting, Martinez works for Westinghouse Lamp as experienced fighter. In this case, Martinez really hit the headlines during 1952 with his wins over Tyny Pellone, Sammy Guilliani and Williams.

Vince has all the moves of a coming champ. He's aiming for a shot at unbeaten Chuck Davey and is willing to take on Vejar or anybody else to reach his goal. A gold puncher with both hands, Martinez has a "quick" pair of mitts. He feints neatly, boxes expertly and throws combinations.

Martinez can be faulted, of course. He takes chances with careless right hand leads, pulls straight back from punches with his head high and is still learning how to pace himself. At times he has a tendency to be over cute, dropping both hands low inviting punches which whistle past his ears. Some night the other fighter is going to find those loopholes. Then we'll know just how far Mr. Martinez is going to go.

In the meantime, he's one of the bright new faces that boxing needs so badly. If he continues in '53 as he did this year, Martinez should be a top ranked welter in another 12 months.

Ole Miss Ready For Engineers Powerhouse

New Orleans (AP) — Mississippi respects perfect football records and great teams—but isn't afraid of them.

The underdog rebels, facing Georgia Tech's unbeaten and untied engineers in the Sugar Bowl here New Year's Day, developed their own system for winning during the regular season.

The system, backed by solid reserve strength, is based on a well-balanced running and passing offense and a tough defense.

It brought Mississippi eight victories and two early-season ties in an unbeaten year that gave the Rebels seventh place in the national rankings.

Rebel Coach Johnny Vaught said he isn't planning anything new to throw at Georgia Tech, which won second ranking nationally.

But Vaught said Ole Miss has some tricks they didn't unveil in the regular season and "maybe we'll have a little something to surprise them."

World Records Fall In Races

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP) — Five world records fell, and a woman drove a boat better than 100 miles an hour for the first time on record, as the four-day Orange Bowl Regatta closed yesterday with a dazzling burst of speed.

Howard Johnson's Mixmaster from Los Angeles, which was rebuilt twice during the past week after accidents, was driven by Lou Nuta Jr., Miami, at a record 122.039 miles an hour.

This new mark for 266-inch hydroplanes erased the record set last Armistice Day at Salton Sea, Calif., when Bob Sikes, Long Beach, was clocked at an average pace of 121.703 miles per hour.

Mat Tourney Now In Finals

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (AP) — Cornell's Frank DeLuca, 147-pound National Intercollegiate Champion, moved into the 157-pound class to score an impressive win in the opening round of the Wilkes College open wrestling championships here last night.

DeLuca pinned Pete Damone, Hofstra College ace, also an Eastern collegiate leader, in 4:21.

A surprise winner for the Wilkes College team was Bill Foote, who registered a first round decision over Mary Cressman, of Muhlenberg, in the 167-pound class, 8-0.

Lehigh's Mahoney brothers, Jim and Ed, both won their first round bouts.

Bouts included:

157 pound class: Dick Whited, Lehigh, defeated Joseph Meyers, East Stroudsburg, 5-2.

191 pound class: Dick Jordan, unattached, pinned Jerry Sorensen, East Stroudsburg, in 1:10.

Richard Dean, Ithaca YMCA, pinned Kenneth Cox, East Stroudsburg, in 4:08.

Patterson Wins

Brooklyn, (AP) — Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn, unbeaten Olympic games middleweight champion, won his fourth straight professional fight by a knee last night when he stopped Lulu Sabatin of Warren, Ohio, in 1:30 of the fifth round of a scheduled eight round main event at Eastern Parkway Arena.

Trojans Are Given Edge In Reserve Strength

Hope To End Big Ten Rule In Rose Bowl

By Bob Myers

Pasadena, Calif. (AP) — Hundreds of Big Ten football rosters began to stream into town yesterday, the sun shone in its nicest fashion and the two Rose Bowl teams, Wisconsin and Southern California, launched into final drills for their date New Year's Day.

By special train, plane and automobile, Badger supporters arrived, headed by Wisconsin Gov. Walter J. Kohler and Wisconsin's 155-piece band which has sworn to score another Big Ten triumph over the Coast conference music makers in the bowl Thursday.

The muscle men, meanwhile resumed practices at their respective fields and approximately 100,000 eyewitnesses, plus millions of television watchers, got ready for the annual fray.

Expert opinion was still divided, with the local horn tooters for the most part predicting a Trojan victory for the Coast and an end to the long domination by Big Ten teams stretching back six games.

Much of the Coast hope is based on what would appear to be superior reserve strength of Southern Cal in both offensive and defensive platoons.

A large part of the Badger attack concerns left halfback Harold Carl, who missed three games entirely this fall but whose running average of 7.4 yards per carry gave him the best mark on the team.

Carl, however, is rated in the China doll class, easily broken, and even today is on the casualty list and a doubtful starter. He has a badly bruised right knee.

Wisconsin sources said Carl's replacement, Bill Hutchinson, at least can stand up under aggressive play.

In contrast, Coach Jess Hill of USC could lose any of his No. 1 backfield combination and there wouldn't be too much difference between the original and the replacement.

More Managers In Oil Deal

Magnolia, Ark. (AP) — All but three of the 16 major league baseball managers now are in on a South Arkansas oil deal.

Dick Burnett, the millionaire Texas oilman who decided to let the big league pilots buy shares in producing tract of 4,000 acres in Columbia, Nevada and Ouchita Counties, announced yesterday that Lou Boudreau of the Boston Red Sox and Fred Hutchinson of the Detroit Tigers had become partners in the operation.

Newell's Will Meet DeVivo's At Y Tonight

Newell's Awningsmen developed a second half scoring spree in the Y Holiday tournament last night and whipped their 31 to 29 half-time lead to a 75 to 42 finale over Worthingtons.

The second match saw DeVivo's Shoemen pick up their steady, winning game in the second and fourth quarters to bash down a decisive 67 to 52 win over Frank's Barber Shop.

Tonight's finals will bring together Newell's and DeVivo's at 7:30.

Off to a 16-12 first quarter lead in the opener, Newell's found Worthington bouncing back to out-score them 17 to 15 in the second frame. It was the final half rush with 19 to 4 and 25 to 9 quarters which iced the game for Newell's.

DeVivo's stepped off to a 14 to 9 first quarter edge and drove it to a 35 to 21 margin by half time. Frank's moved back with a 19 to 11 third stanza, but fell under the gun of DeVivo's 21 to 12 final.

Tennis Miracle Sought By Seixas, Trabert In Davis Cup Challenge Round Today

Adelaide, Australia, (AP) — American tennis forces prayed for a modern miracle, and needed it, as they prepared to send Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert against Australia's Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor today in the doubles phase of the Davis Cup challenge round.

To keep their flickering hopes alive, the U. S. lads must take the measure of these two court killers who blasted out singles victories today to send Australia off to a commanding 2-0 lead.

Sedgman and McGregor are a veteran tandem and if they come anywhere near the brilliant form displayed in singles they should have little trouble with the Americans, who paired for the first time in the inter-zone matches against Italy.

In the final singles jousts Wednesday, Sedgman is slated to meet Trabert and McGregor to play Seixas.

The curly-haired Sedgman measured up to every inch of his rating as the world's premier amateur by cutting down Seixas, the U. S. captain from Philadelphia in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3.

Afterwards McGregor came into the Memorial Drive courts to drive home what certainly appeared to be the finishing blow by smashing Trabert, 11-9, 6-4, 6-1.

Trabert, the crew-cut Cincinnati sailor who took a Navy leave to play in the matches, staged a spectacular fight in the long, deuced first set but his long period of inactivity began to take its toll in the ensuing games. McGregor was too sharp.

Trabert was so whipped out at the end of the grueling test that his legs wobbled as he strode dejectedly toward the dressing room and it appeared he might fall. An ambulance crewman grabbed him and assisted him the rest of the way.

A crowd of more than 15,000, packing the Memorial Drive courts gave the weary American athlete a tremendous ovation.

Unemployment Fund Drops $40 Million

Harrisburg, (AP)—Pennsylvania will finish 1952 with 560 million dollars in its unemployment compensation fund, a drop of more than 40 millions since 1951.

The figure was disclosed by A.
J. Caruso, director of the Employment Security Bureau, who said the decline was due to the steel strike and a 1951 law changing employer contribution rates.

The fund paid out an estimated six millions in benefits to workers in captive coal mines and allied industries which were idled by the steel strike last summer.

Caruso said the 1951 law cut into the fund by 52 millions because of reduced contribution rates by big employers.

But increased employment brought in almost 10 millions in new contributions, leaving the fund at the 560 million figure.

Caruso said the dollar reserves would likely climb to about 690 millions in the coming year.

Giving Up Limousines Would Save State $210,000 Yearly

Harrisburg, (AP)—The Chesterman Committee said yesterday that the Commonwealth could save $210,000 by giving up 176 high-powered limousines and substituting them with smaller, medium-priced automobiles.

Another $75,000 could be saved by encouraging more drivers of state-owned cars to buy gasoline and oil at state-owned service station facilities instead of commercially operated stations, the committee said.

In a third recommendation, the committee said $8,500 could be saved by discontinuing the use of speed controllers on state cars
"since their use as safety devices has been discredited."

The report devoted itself to operations of 3,700 state-owned vehicles in the state motor pool and others issued to individuals. The total number of state-owned automobiles has been estimated at between 5,000 and 6,000.

Assignment of large limousines,
the report said, should be restricted to the governor and department heads or officials of an equivalent status.

"This would result in a reduction from 27 Cadillacs to six Cadillacs or equivalent class and of Buicks and similar class cars from 196 to 41," the report explained. "Such cars, when being replaced, should be sold on the market and not passed on down the line."

Only two-thirds of the 3,840,000 gallons of gasoline purchased for state cars in 1951 came from state-operated bulk facilities, the committee said, adding:

"Based on the standards of good commercial fleet operation," the committee noted, "at least 80 per cent should have been procured from the state's bulk facilities."

Film Producer Seeks Half Of Star's Salary

New York, (AP)—A producer claimed yesterday that actress Gloria Swanson renege on a movie deal with him after he'd started her on her comeback trail.

In a breach of contract suit in State Supreme Court, producer
Paul R. Thoma asked half of Miss Swanson's comeback earnings — which he estimated at half a million dollars.

Miss Swanson has entered a general denial to Thoma's charges.
The trial is scheduled for Jan. 7.

Thoma said Miss Swanson in 1946 was "then out of vogue and in the hope of coming back was seeking favorable employment and failing to obtain it."

The complainant said they agreed he was to star her in a movie short, with the option of making six more movies and splitting the profits.

Instead, Thoma contended, the actress used screen tests he made of her to sell herself to others until she finally got a movie lead on the strength of it.

John Ferrand and son, Mr. and
Mrs. Frank Flaherty, Mrs. Joseph
Blake, were guests of Mr. and Mrs.
William Flaherty, and children, on Christmas Day.

Miss Helen Fleming spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. James Fleming and family, Dalton.

Six Treated At Dispensary For Injuries

Six persons were treated for injuries in the dispensary at the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg, over the weekend.

On Saturday, eight-year-old Robert Ace, of Delaware Water Gap, cut the palm of his right hand on a Christmas tree ornament. Jacob Schoupe, 13, of 396 Chestnut St., East Stroudsburg, while hunting with a BB gun accidentally discharged the weapon and suffered a wound in the index finger of his left hand.

Robert Clarkson, 12, of Delaware Water Gap, accidentally stabbed himself with a pair of scissors and sustained a laceration of the right index finger. William Blake, 41, of 280 N. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, received a splinter in his right index finger while working at Empire Box Corp. plant, Minisink Hills.

On Sunday, Ealand Clark, 14, of 27 N. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, suffered laceration of the scalp when he ran into a post while ramping. Mrs. George Oney, of 92 Washington St., East Stroudsburg, lacerated the tip of her left thumb while carving.

All Quotas Reached By St. Paul's

Craig Meadows — Gershom H. Lillis, treasurer of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Smithfield, Craig Meadows, said last night that all quotas assigned the parish by the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the ULCA for 1952 have been paid in full. Benevolent contributions for the parish exceeded $700 including apportioned benevolence, Lutheran World Action, CHEY and a donation to the Good Shepherd Home in Allentown.

In addition to the $700 a substantial shipment of clothing was sent to Phillipsburg, N. J., for inclusion in the shipments being made by Lutheran World Relief to the needy folk of the world. Pastor Wunder said that this marks the sixth consecutive year that all benevolent quotas have been either met in full or oversubscribed. The vestry expresses its gratitude to the congregation for its stewardship for these worthy benevolent causes.

Young People Honor Wunders

Rev. and Mrs. William F. Wunder were both surprised recently when the officers of the Lutheran Youth Fellowship of Grace Church called them to come forward at the annual Christmas party sponsored by the young people to receive a small token of their affection for the pastor and his wife.

Amidst the tinsel and decorations of the social rooms each unwrapped their gift. Pastor Wunder received a large assortment of Canadian fishing plugs and lures and Mrs. Wunder was given a beautiful silk scarf.

83 Respond To Inquiry From Shoe Manufacturer

A heavy response to an appeal in The Daily Record issue of Dec. 20 for potential employees for a shoe manufacturing plant who contemplate locating in the Stroudsburgs was disclosed last night.

Jacob Wachtman, executive secretary of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce, said his office received 83 contacts from area people expressing their desire to be employed by such a plant.

The plea, in the form of a coupon which asked "Need a Job?" was aimed at supplying the prospective plant owner with names and addresses of area men and women for future reference in employment.

Owner of the plant, now operating in New York State with 80 to 100 workers, communicated this week with Sen. Montgomery Crowe, chairman of the chamber's industrial relations committee, relative to coming here.

In a letter to the owner of a local building, whose name and location were not revealed, the New York manufacturer said his movement here was contingent on certain concessions.

He asked the owner to ready the plant's physical aspect for work, stating the present condition does not warrant moving here and added he would not consider the move until he is assured the building is ready for occupancy by his company.

Replies to the appeal were sent to the New York plant owner yesterday by Sen. Crowe, to show the manpower available if and when the location is made here.

Of the 83 responses about 90 per cent were coupons clipped from The Daily Record. Others were personal contacts with the Chamber of Commerce office and telephone calls.

In the list of job seekers are the names and addresses of 25 women, and five indicated they have previous experience in the shoe manufacturing industry.

Sen. Crowe said the final decision to locate in the Stroudsburgs now rests with the owner of the building. If he agrees to prepare his structure for the industry it is highly possible the plant may shift operations here, he said.
